

CLERK: ..without any modifications?

SENATOR WESELY: Right.

CLERK: Okay. I have an amendment by Senator Wesely, Madam President. (Senator Wesely's AM 2319 appears on page 2417 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT MOUL: Senator Wesely.

SENATOR WESELY: Okay, I apologize. This is the one that Senator Kristensen was concerned about because it dealt with the advertising on the waiver of copays, but he was concerned about saying you can't advertise for something that's legal, and what the other amendment said is it's not...you can't be in the Medicaid program if you automatically waive the copays. So now we've put the horse in front of the cart and we can go back to that other amendment and it should take care of Senator Kristensen's concerns, should take care of the media's concerns and I, again, what we're talking about here is we don't want somebody out there just advertising come to us, don't worry about it, you won't have to pay any copay. This won't allow them to advertise that sort of thing, so I would ask for your support for that.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Wesely. Senator Lindsay, followed by Senator Bernard-Stevens and Witek.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Could I ask Senator Wesely a question or two?

PRESIDENT MOUL: Senator Wesely.

SENATOR WESELY: Yeah. Okay.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Senator Wesely, could you again go through that and address Senator Kristensen's concern and how...how that concern is now taken care of?

SENATOR WESELY: Well, the Kristensen concern was about the...making illegal the advertising of something that's legal and with the other amendment we made it essentially illegal, so now you're...now you're not going to be allowed to advertise for.... Well, of course, that's...
